From Studio to Gallery

CONTEMPORARY IMPRESSIONISM

SAT 27 JUN - SUN 9 AUG 2026

Step into a world rich with colour and light within the vibrant works of three of Australia's celebrated artists: Glenda Wise, Peter Smales and Maxwell Wilks.

This assembly is a masterful showcase of talent, presenting traditional landscape painting, stunning florals, portraiture and still life in oils, watercolour and pastels.

While diverse in subject matter and mood, the artists are united by a deep reverence for shifting atmospheres and the depth of beauty in what they see before them.

Peter Smales: His paintings are known for their rich colours, captured moods and impressionistic effects. Peter draws his inspiration from the endless variety found in nature as well as unexpected corners of the civilised world.

Glenda Wise: As a resident of the Dandenong Ranges, Glenda is surrounded by inspiring nature. She is known for her strokes of vivid colour and energy in voluptuous florals, intimate landscapes and vibrant illustrations.

Maxwell Wilks: With his bold use of colour and draftsmanship, Max brings dramatic light and shadow to the landscape. Gathered direct from life, he portrays many varied and familiar scenes with strength and vitality, especially within his maritime subjects.

Exhibition Opening | Sun 28 Jun 2pm (free event)
